the corridor

Storefronts along tree-shaded Telegraph and Shattuck are mostly new-gen dedicated to the art of one thing – and whether that's vintage clothing, bagels, craft beers, cocktails, pizza, games or oysters...that's how this neighborhood rolls.

about temescal

Temescal is known for its eclectic vibe, unique retail, and food scene.

Temescal is a highly sought after area between Uptown and Rockridge, and continues to develop with high density mixed-use residential and retail.

One of the oldest neighborhoods in Oakland, Temescal is full of innovative and diverse people creating small, independent, thoughtfully-curated shops, restaurants, and services.

Temescal is a walkable neighborhood with sunny tree lined streets and charming storefronts. The commercial district offers a wide variety of stores selling everything from home goods to baked goods, vintage to eco, jewels to shoes, and books to designer clothing. Rounding out the mix is a wide variety of coffee shops, bars and eateries.

Temescal is also one of the Bay Area's most connected locations. It's easy to walk, bike, or ride wherever you need to go. The MacArthur BART station is the main transit hub for the entire system and can get you to downtown Oakland and Berkeley in a matter of minutes as well as connect you to both OAK and SFO airports.
